Charleroi: A City of Multiculturalism

Charleroi is a city that embodies multiculturalism, reflecting its industrial history and the migratory movements that have shaped it. Over the decades, Charleroi has welcomed populations from diverse backgrounds, notably from Italy, the Maghreb, Turkey, and Africa. The city's various neighborhoods resonate with a multitude of languages, traditions, and ways of life, making Charleroi a living laboratory of cultural coexistence that contributes to shaping a dynamic and open collective identity.

Libraries play a crucial role as third place, offering spaces for sharing knowledge and culture. Having a library that reflects the diversity of its users is essential to fostering an inclusive and enlightened society. In this spirit, the Arthur Rimbaud Library offers a wide selection of novels in foreign languages (English, Dutch, Italian), allowing everyone to read in their preferred language—or to discover a new one.

Additionally, the library houses a collection dedicated to language learning. Whether you wish to improve your English, learn Dutch, Italian, Arabic, Japanese, Greek, German, or even Russian, you will find resources suited to all levels. These books cater to both self-learners and guided students, offering practical guides, exercises with answer keys, and reference books.

Furthermore, the educational section provides books specifically designed for non-native speakers. These resources, aimed at both teachers and learners, facilitate language acquisition and encourage integration.

Recently, the library has expanded its collections by launching a new section of documentaries in English. This collection covers a variety of topics—history, arts, cooking, and more—and continues to grow!

This brochure invites you to explore the valuable resources available at the library and to discover the joy of reading in English. Whether you are a novel enthusiast, a comic book lover, a documentary explorer, or a manga fan, let your curiosity guide you to your next great read.

Charleroi : une ville multiculturelle

Charleroi est une ville riche de sa multiculturalité, reflet de l'histoire industrielle et des mouvements migratoires qui l'ont façonnée. Au fil des décennies, Charleroi a accueillie des populations venues de divers horizons, notamment d'Italie, du Maghreb, de Turquie et d'Afrique. Les différents quartiers de la ville vibrent d'une pluralité de langues, de traditions et de modes de vie, faisant de Charleroi un laboratoire vivant de coexistence culturelle contribuant à forger une identité collective dynamique et ouverte.

Les bibliothèques jouent un rôle essentiel comme troisième lieu de vie et d'espace de partage de connaissances et de cultures. Avoir une bibliothèque qui reflète la diversité de ses usagers est une nécessité pour favoriser une société inclusive et éclairée. Dans cet esprit, la bibliothèque Arthur Rimbaud propose un large choix de romans en langues étrangères (anglais, néerlandais, italien) permettant à chacun de lire dans sa langue de prédilection... ou de se familiariser avec une nouvelle.

Par ailleurs, la bibliothèque possède un fonds dédié à l'apprentissage des langues. Que ce soit pour perfectionner votre anglais, apprendre le néerlandais, l'italien, l'arabe, le japonais, le grec, l'allemand ou encore le russe, vous trouverez des méthodes adaptées à tous les niveaux. Ces ressources s'adressent tant aux autodidactes qu'aux apprenants accompagnés, via des guides pratiques, des exercices avec corrigés et des ouvrages de référence.

Aussi, la section pédagogique propose des ouvrages conçus spécifiquement pour les personnes allophones. Ces ressources, destinées aux enseignants et aux apprenants, facilitent l'acquisition de la langue et encouragent l'intégration.

Récemment, la bibliothèque a enrichi ses collections en inaugurant un fonds de documentaires en anglais. Vous y trouverez des ouvrages aux thématiques variées : histoire, arts, cuisine, ... un fonds qui tend à s'enrichir !

Cette brochure vous invite à explorer les précieuses ressources de la bibliothèque et à découvrir le plaisir de lire en anglais. Amateurs de romans, passionnés de bandes dessinées, curieux de documentaires ou friands de mangas, laissez-vous guider par vos envies et partez à la rencontre de votre prochaine lecture.
